

pennsylvania
STATE POLICE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
February 8, 2018

Armed Robbery

Chadds Ford Township, Delaware County – The Pennsylvania State Police is investigating an armed robbery that occurred on February 8, 2018 at Jersey Mike's Subs, which is located at 1700 block of Wilmington West Chester Pike, Chadds Ford Township, Delaware County, PA.

The suspect was described to be a black male, medium build, approximately 6 foot tall and was attired in all black clothing. The suspect was wearing a black ski mask partially covering his face. The suspect displayed a handgun and demanded money from the register. The suspect fled the scene on foot with an undisclosed amount of US Currency. There were no injuries reported.

If you have information pertaining to this crime please call the Pennsylvania Crime Stoppers Toll Free at 1-800-4PA-TIPS or Trooper Brian Maturo of the Pennsylvania State Police Criminal Investigation Unit at 610-558-7080. All callers remain anonymous and could be eligible for a cash reward.

MEDIA CONTACT: Trooper First Class Timothy Greene, 215-514-5805 / tgreene@pa.gov
###